4- open the zip file and extract the ex4 file here.

5- Restart metatrader and you should see Blue monkey in the list of expert advisors.

- 6- Attach the EA to any chart you want it to be active on. At the moment we are running it on EURUSD and EURGBP. So attach it to those charts by dragging the EA and dropping it there.
- 7- Make sure the following is correctly marked:

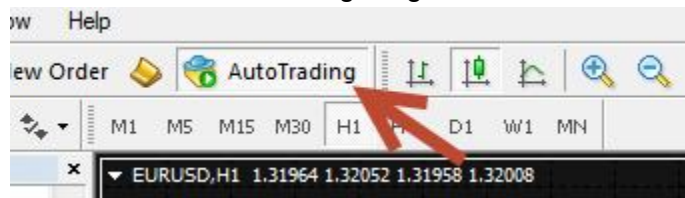

- 8- Configure settings if needed:

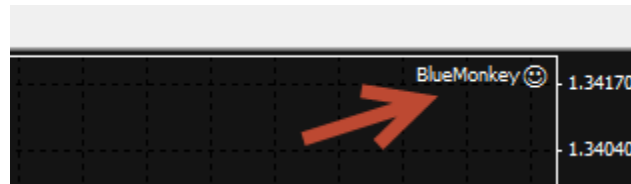

we recommend not changing any settings. If you are using the EA on 2 pairs, change the initial lot to 0.02.

- 9- Make sure “auto trading” is green:

- 10- Make sure you see the smiley face on the chart:

- 11- Make sure we have registered your account number.

SETTINGS:

Initial Lot: for each $1000 in your account, what would you like to be the initial balance of the EA?

Initial Balance: Initial lot is calculated based on this value. We recommend not changing it at all.

Account Loss Margin: percentage of the account you are willing to risk. This is the Stop Loss of the EA.
